

Part 1: Courage

You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the thing which you think you cannot do.

Eleanor Roosevelt

Courage is going from failure to failure without losing enthusiasm.

Winston Churchill

True courage is not the absence of fear—but the willingness to proceed in spite of it.

Unknown

In the end, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends. A time comes when silence is betrayal.

Rev. Martin Luther King

It is easier to find a score of men wise enough to discover the truth than to find one intrepid enough, in the face of opposition, to stand up for it.

A. A. Hodge

The greatest mistake in life is to be continually fearing that you will make one.

Elbert Hubbard

Evil triumphs when good men do nothing.

Edmund Burke

Except a person be part coward, it is not a compliment to say he is brave.

Mark Twain

Nobody made a greater mistake than he who did nothing because he could only do a little.

Edmund Burke

There may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest.

Elie Wiesel

To have courage for whatever comes in life - everything lies in that.

Saint Teresa of Avila

Courage is rightly esteemed the first of human qualities... because it is the quality which guarantees all others.

Winston Churchill

The courage of very ordinary people is all that stands between us and the dark.

Pam Brown

Courage is what it takes to stand up and speak; courage is also what it takes to sit down and listen.

Winston Churchill

Courage is the first of human qualities because it is the quality which guarantees the others.
